MR. NEILL'S LETTERS.

EVERY packet from South America or Burdeaux brings us letters from the Uruguay and Argentine Consul General: it would seem Mess. Neill and Varela had resolved to compete for the palm of epistolary rhetoric, and we must fairly confess it were difficult to decide which writer is the more interesting.

Mr. Neill views diplomacy in a business light, and likes up cotton, immigration, and dried beef, without vain fears of soiling his fingers or bringing redtape below par. His periods are not encumbered with Ciceronian grace, nor his treats subjects of lively importance with vigor, clearness, and persuasive enthusiasm. To him especially is ceo the honor reserved by the sister republic of the Establishing, and just end of resting on his laurels, he now enters into the industrial advancement of Mr. Video with a zeal unequalled by any Official either Public or Private. Like ourselves, he thinks American war affords a splendid opportunity for cotton-planting in the River Plate territories, he has procured 170 lbs. of Sea Island, Egyptian, and Upland cotton, which a Mr. Hunter Corbett, Association sends, as a New Year's gift, to Fres. Berro. He mentions that Mr. Wilson has promised a choice selection of seeds from the Botanical Gardens of Melbourne that is, Australia, and for his efforts to acclimatise the grains, animals &c. of different zones, and his valuable contributions to Uruguay is expected in a few weeks, per Mercury. Mr. Neill has also undertaken a consultancy to his cotton problem and seeing the many applications from distressed cotton and agriculturists, urges the Government to accept Mr. Robertson's plan of sending out skilled artisans and agriculturists, as

COTTON IN THE CAMP.

To the Editor.—Sir,—I was very glad to hear that the Lady of the Lake has arrived, and has been safely delivered of her interesting cargo. Please send by return of post 6 lbs. of seed that I wrote for last week. The cotton plants that I have got in my garden are doing very well: they are of a dark green color, and about twelve inches high.

I am, Sir, Your obedient servant,
W.
